Dr. Herbert G. Oxendine

Dr. Herbert G. Oxendine was a man
 With whom I worked
 With whom I played
 With whom I prayed.
 He was a husband—a father—a son
 He was a Professor—a Dean—a Director
 He was a citizen—a neighbor and a friend
 He was a CHRISTIAN and he spoke softly.
 He loved his family—his community—these plains
 He loved his church and the COLLEGE
 He loved his faculty—his friends—this student body
 And to each he always spoke softly.
 He respected his colleagues and opinions contrary to his own.
 He knew not false pride, professional jealousy, only humility.
 He knew only dedication, loyalty, devotion and he spoke softly.
 He was a leader, always ready to assume responsibility—to give of his time and substance—to take a stand based on his own high sense of conviction, of logic, of justice, and right.
 He was a leader—he was a man
 Above all that he was
 Above all that he did
 Above all that he wanted to be or do
 He was a teacher, both in word and action and he spoke softly.
 Some may think the gentle voice is stilled
 But I think it speaks, and if we but listen It speaks softly.
 It speaks to those who were privileged to sit in his classes, in his committee meetings, in his civic clubs, in his faculty meetings and in his church.

Yes, the spirit speaks; and, as always It speaks softly.
 It urges the family that life continues, that the same courage and the same dedication to the high call of service to man and dedication to God contain the answers to life's mysteries and perplexities
 and it speaks softly.
 It urges this student body to continue striving for that same high excellence which he set as the goal for himself and this COLLEGE and It speaks softly.
 It urges the faculty to remain dedicated to those lofty ideals and standards of personal and professional conduct that marked his own career and It speaks softly.
 It urges this COLLEGE and its leaders to press onward—to grow in service and dedication to the high call of education—to keep the faith that the primary purpose, the primary cause, of this college's existence—of every man's existence—in the pursuit of truth
 and It speaks softly.
 No, the gentle, kind voice is not stilled.
 It has only joined with those of Madison, Reynolds, Hunter, Stillwell, Elliott, Seymour, Albright and Hammond.
 With them it now speaks. To them it speaks—of this COLLEGE, of its ALUMNI, of YOU and ME.
 Together they speak to all of us, and they speak softly.
 His absence creates a void in his HOME, on this CAMPUS, and in this COMMUNITY.
 He was a man—
 a man of courage—a man of Faith—
 a man of wisdom, kindness, and humility,
AND HE SPOKE SOFTLY.
 President English E. Jones

For the first time, the yearbook staff is proud to present the Miss Indianhead Pageant. Each yearbook staff member supports a candidate from which the ten finalists are chosen. The girls are selected from photographs submitted to persons outside, but interested in, the college. The queen and the four members of her court are elected by someone unconnected with the college, the basis of judgment being photogenic ability. The yearbook staff looks forward to making this an annual event.

Administration and Faculty

Dr. English E. Jones

President English E. Jones has been with Pembroke State College since 1956 and has served as President since 1962. His background includes a Bachelor's degree from Western Kentucky University, a Master's from North Carolina State University, and an honorary Doctor of Laws degree from Wake Forest College. Before he was named President he served the college as Dean of Men, Dean of Students, and Administrative assistant to the president. Since Dr. Jones' installation as President, Pembroke State College has continued to grow both in student population and facilities necessary to accommodate it.

President Jones talks with Dean Moore and Dean Cortner.

Gone from the 1966 team, which had a record of 28 wins and 4 losses, are shortstop Richard Davis, 2nd baseman Richard Thompson and pitcher Lewis Godwin. The Braves' success in 1967 depends on how well freshmen perform at key positions. The outfield returns intact with Ray Brayboy, Johnny Williams, and Richard Straughn. Roland Deaton is back at 3rd base and Mike Carruthers returns to man 1st base. Filling the vacancies at the keystone will be letterman Tommy Warren at second base and freshman Ronnie Collins at shortstop. Catching duties will be handled by senior Elwood Baker who will be backed up by Greg Allen and Aaron Hicks. Heading the pitching staff will be veterans Wayne Nunn, Larry Crews, Bobby Hubbard and Keith Manning. Realizing that a 28-4 record is hard to beat the Braves nevertheless, will be shooting for the NAIA District 26 crown which they won in 1965 and lost in the finals to Guilford in 1966.

Conclusion

Students . . .

Coming On Strong!

What ever happened to Blues?

We're in the 10% tbat do.

These P.S.C. boys just can't take a hint.

Humor Hour

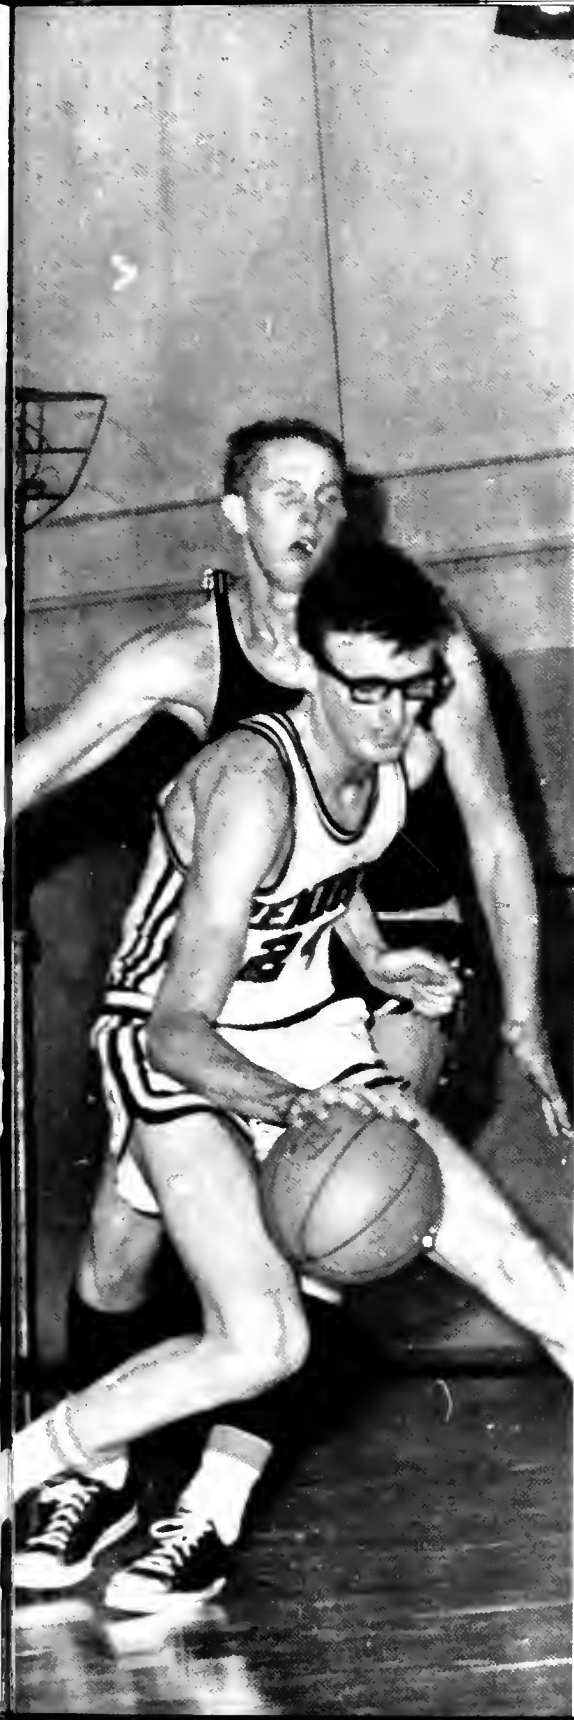

Well, she didn't have to campus us for the holidays.

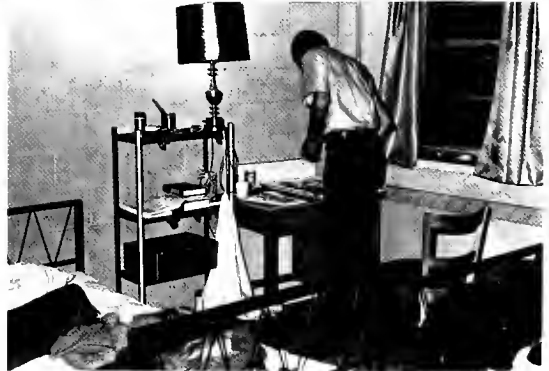

Wonder what would happen if I shaved off his beard?

I'm the Playmate of the year.

No this isn't a Reform school, Madame.

"Jacob's Haven"

Joe, your ELBOW Action is Rough.

Do you think we should try the Watusi?

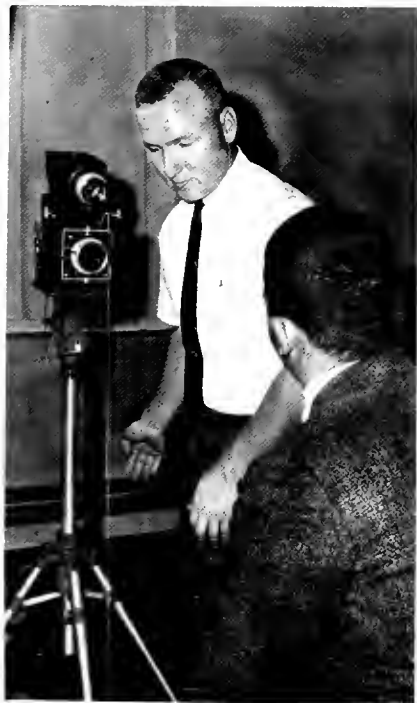

Hello Madame, I'm Adam.

Funny what you can pick up during the rush hour.

No, They're not out of step, Robin, YOU are.

I didn't know Dean ——— subscribed to Playboy.

Don't be nervous, it's not for the draft card.

The Ptomaine Tavern Line-up.

What's this about Bridget Bardot to attend classes at P. S. C.

That does it, you write the term papers this semester.

Only 3,000,283 words to type before dawn.

Don't you ever close your eyes?

You never smile like this in Economic Systems.

Spontaneous love affair.

Jackie's famous smile.

Anything you can do, I can do better.

Campus life can get too close for comfort at times. Right, Barbara?

If you're missing your specimen, it's crawling on my notes.

Men shouldn't listen to what I say . . . but what I mean.

They censored my article AGAIN.

And then there was the time I was in the U. S. Calvary.

I'll beat you yet, Dr. Ku!

If I put a beard on him, do you think I'll get brownie points.

Meet me at midnight, Baby.

These six books get worn out fast.

That was just the first bell . . . we've got time for another hand.

Mac, you say the sweetest things.

P.S.C.'s answer for Joan Baez.

Money, money and more money.

P.S.C. faculty swings out at picnic.

I think that I shall Never see . . .

Okay "Yanks", In the south we march like this.

I think I crushed a $5.00 slide.

*I Believe in the

of Pembroke State College and for what it stands. This year's INDIANHEAD is the product of much planning, long hours of picture taking, endless hours of picture identifying, writing of copy and captions, typing, and, at times, a lot of worrying. The staff endeavored to compile in one book all the memories of the 1966-1967 Pembroke State College academic year. Although we started late, we pushed ourselves to accomplish two goals: first, to make this the best, most thorough yearbook that Pembroke State College has ever published; and second, to receive the yearbook before the end of the spring semester. This annual is a reflection of you, the student body of Pembroke State. We have tried to depict this campus as you have created and believed in it day by day. Only you can determine whether or not we have fulfilled our goals.

As Editor I would like to extend my gratitude to numerous individuals. Hunter Publishing Company, and in particular their representative Ed Goldston, has been of immense help. Mr. Goldston has stayed close at hand so that he might help solve all our many problems. Mr. Pendergraft, our faculty advisor, deserves thanks for all that he has done. Janice Odom, the Assistant Editor, has done an outstanding job. Without her aid, this yearbook would not have been completed. To my staff, I say a heart felt "thank you" for always being willing to take on one more task. I must give a special "thank you" to my room mate for putting up with me during the crises which at times the annual presented. It was she who helped keep my spirits high. To you, the student body of Pembroke State College, I say "thank you" for giving me the opportunity to edit your yearbook. I realize the great trust you have bestowed on me, and I only hope that I have lived up to that trust.

The 1967 year at Pembroke is almost at an end. The students will soon have only their memories and the INDIANHEAD to remind them of this year. We, the staff, hope that you will cherish this yearbook. In closing I say, "Take the INDIANHEAD and enjoy it. You may as well because you have already paid for it."

Sincerely,
Mary Jo Bird
Editor
